

Monroe Community College Rochester, New York

The DiMarco Group contracted with Monroe Community College to develop and build a 400-bed, on-campus student housing complex and became involved in this project during its infancy. Our expertise in pre-construction development allowed the feasibility studies and financing program to flow effortlessly. It is expected that this project will be a benchmark for future student residence projects on community college campuses throughout New York and the United States.

Owner: Monroe Community College Association
Architect: Kideney Architects Buffalo, NY
Location: Rochester, NY
Use: Student Housing
Size: 400 bed, 3 story facility
Cost: $11,862,000
Year built: 2003

The DiMarco Group